BRIMAN'S Leading jewelers

"I'm Rob Briman of Briman's Leading Jewelers in Topeka, Kansas. We contacted Wilkerson for this going out of business sale because we had experience with them ten years ago. My business partner, Debbie, and I decided to close our store about a year ago.

We were going to operate the sale beginning in April, but then COVID happened. We had to close our store for eight weeks, beginning on March 19th. For eight weeks, we held on with our fingernails and reopened on May 18th. We got our feet back underneath us and set new dates for the sale.

One of our main fears was that because we're in a pandemic, we had no real way to know if we would be successful or if we had a failure on our hands. We didn't know what to expect. Again, having experience with Wilkerson, we allowed them to come in and begin the sale. As we have operated the sale, it has turned out to be fantastic and beyond our expectations.

Now that we have operated sales with Wilkerson twice, it is clear to us that they are a company that can help you achieve success. I would recommend Wilkerson to any retail jeweler who is considering going out of business. They will help you reach your financial goals and the experiences we have had have been tremendously successful."
