"We would highly recommend Wilkerson to do a retirement sale and we would highly recommend Tom and Marian as consultants. The whole company from start to finish was extremely impressive to us."

The Goldsmith
Binghamton, New York

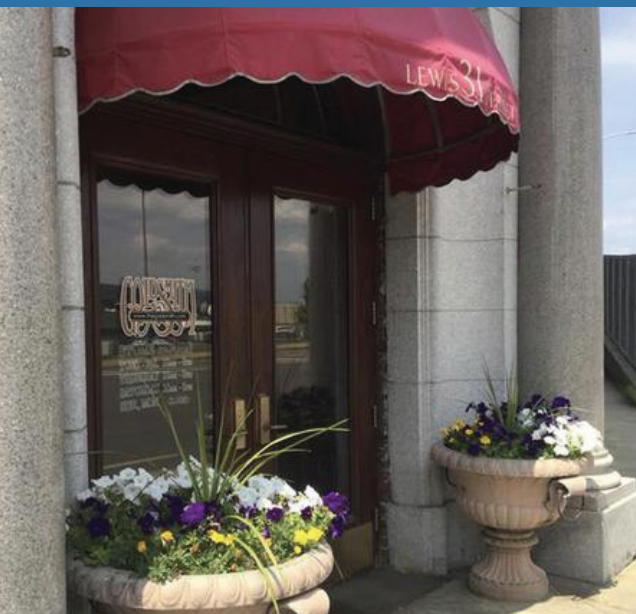

"My name is Gina McHugh and I opened The Goldsmith in Binghamton, New York in 1978 as a single person doing all the benchwork, repairs, the custom work, and sales. It was wearing lots of hats back then. My husband and I decided after forty-two years that it was time to slow down.

We heard of Wilkerson many years ago. They've always been a part of our bridal jewelry selection and we've always felt really good about their quality and their service. Whenever we had a special order, it was delivered in great time and in perfect condition. We were very happy with them, so when we were looking for someone to work with us, Wilkerson was a natural choice.

Our consultants were Tom and Marian, and from the first minute they walked into my store, they were amazing! They integrated into all of our systems. They learned the way that we did things. They supported our staff. They supported my husband and myself. They made the sale very successful and quite easy.

We would highly recommend Wilkerson to do a retirement sale and we would highly recommend Tom and Marian as consultants. The whole company from start to finish was extremely impressive to us."
