Going Out of Business. Retiring. Moving.*

Gary Zoet

"My name is Gary Zoet, and I'm the owner of Shannon Fine Jewelry in Houston, TX. We've been in existence since 1979. We've previously been members of IJO and are current members of RJO.

For better or worse, we were forced into closing our store. We have a road expansion taking place outside of our store and we ended up in an eminent domain situation.

I've dealt with Wilkerson through their merchandise and reps, who were always pleasant. When it came time for the going out of business sale, teaming up with them seemed like the logical thing to do.

When I first met with Rick, he got some information from me regarding our location, inventory and the number of customers we had. They worked up a presentation based on the information and the sales they expected. Truthfully, when I saw what he had worked up, I was a little skeptical. Surprisingly, we're on pace to achieve our goal. I'm very excited about that!

Wilkerson has done thousands of store closings and I've never done one. It's logical to have someone with experience conduct the sale. There wasn't really much necessary preparation, because once Debbie and Keith got here, we settled into the process and for me, this was great.

Wilkerson exceeded my expectations. They took care of everything, including the paperwork, which was a big relief. We have one week left. It's been a long process but when you get to the end it's like, wow! I'm very pleased."
